MISS HEDMAN MARRIES TO-DAY CHEERY MAN WHO WON HEART

Actress Says Capt. House's Unfailing Optimism in Trenches Appealed to Her.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. DULUTH, Minn., June 3.—With the sun glinting her golden hair, Miss Martha Hedman, Swedish actress, to-day sat knitting on the porch of the home of the parents of Capt. Henry Arthur House, to whom she will be married to-morrow. She said she was making a brown silk sweater to go with the new leather trimmed skirt which she will wear on her honeymoon.

Capt. House and Miss Hedman obtained the wedding license at the courthouse yesterday. Preparations are being made for a simple home wedding at 4 o'clock. The couple will leave after the ceremony for New York city.

Enthusiastic over her summer holiday here, Miss Hedman said she prefers America as a place for her permanent home. If she has a hobby at all, she says, there is only one. Unlike many actresses she never has had any pets. Neither does she wear jewelry or flowers. Her dream and ambition, however, is to own a cattle ranch in Wyoming or Montana.

"It was shortly before he left for France that we were introduced," Miss Hedman said in speaking of her romance with Capt. House. She described his unfailing optimism, hope and good cheer during his life in the trenches and subsequent capture and internment in a German prison camp as one of the primary causes that won her love. When the remark was made "Only the brave deserve the fair" she flashed a smile. Then she added seriously "Nothing can be too good for the brave."

Women Active in Berkshire Affairs

President of Stockbridge Casino Names Four on House Committee for Season.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. LENOX, Mass., June 4.—Mr. Edward B. Owen, president of the Stockbridge Casino, has appointed Mrs. Arthur W. Swann, Mrs. Lawrence Gourlay, Mrs. William Marshall Bullitt and Miss Christina D. Sedgwick as the house committee for the season. A flower show is to be held at the Casino in July for the first time in four years, and Miss Marie O. Kobbe and Mrs. Owen are to be in charge.

Among those who registered at the Stockbridge Golf and Tennis Club during the week were Mr. and Mrs. D. Percy Morgan, Jr., and Miss Edna H. Barger, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. de Geradoff; Mr. Charles E. Bateson and Mr. Rene E. Hoguet, who were with Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay Hoguet at Monument Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Emelyn L. Stewardson of Philadelphia, and Mr. James Monroe Walker of Lexington, Mass.

The Laurel Hill Association of Stockbridge, of which Mr. Alexander Sedgwick is president, has taken over the care of Monument Mountain State Park of 312 acres, which was given to the Commonwealth in 1920 by Miss Helen C. Butler in memory of her sister, Miss Rosalie Butler. The Laurel Hill society, which was founded in 1852, is the oldest village improvement organization in the country. Miss Mabel Choate and Miss Emily Tuckerman are among its chairmen of committees appointed to keep tidy certain streets of Stockbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Jones, of Colford, have leased the Dr. Henry P. Jacques villa in Yukon street, Lenox, for the season. As Miss Cathleen Neilson and later as Mrs. Vanderbilt, Mrs. Jones Colford was frequently in Lenox. It was through her close friend, Mrs. Raymond T. Barker, that she and Mr. Colford decided to come to Lenox.

Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, on her annual spring visit to Lenox early in the week, stopping at the Curtis Hotel and going on Tuesday through northern Berkshire to Woodstock, Vt., and thence to Shelburne Farms for a brief visit with Dr. and Mrs. W. Seward Webb.

Mr. Chandler Robbins, who arrived at the Curtis Hotel on Monday for the season, is 85 years old, and has been coming to Lenox since 1859. While here he goes driving every day.

Mrs. Louis Chauvenet of Boston, formerly of St. Louis, gave a large luncheon at the Maplewood Hotel in Pittsfield on Tuesday for Miss Eugenia M. Gardner and her fiancé, Mr. Dwight Rudd of Boston. Mrs. Chauvenet, who was Miss Annie L. Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Allen of Pittsfield, has many friends in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Cobb of Chicago are at the Maplewood before opening Miss Gertrude Watson's house in Pittsfield, which they have leased. Mr. and Mrs. E. Benedict Cobb, of Washington, D. C., are at the Maplewood for the season.

At the Red Lion Inn, Stockbridge, are Mrs. George R. Agassiz of Newport, Mr. and Mrs. James Lees Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson B. Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Choate Crombie and Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Allyn Jones of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Farmhouse Prentice are building a large swimming pool for their children on their Mount Hope farm in Williamstown. All of Mr. Prentice's employees refused to abide by the Massachusetts daylight saving law and are working on standard time.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS. Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., June 4.—Mrs. James E. Farrell, accompanied by James E. Farrell, Jr., and Miss Lydia Farrell, have returned to Sharon Hill, Pa.

Mrs. W. K. Grove of New York was among those driving to Elmhurst for luncheon.

In a threesome playing the long golf course were Col. H. B. Hanger of Richmond, Mr. John J. Watts of New York, and his brother, Mr. C. R. Watts, who arrived today. Other arrivals were Lieut. and Mrs. V. H. Schaeffer from Newport and Mr. and Mrs. Allyn D. Warren from Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Reis played a foursome and had luncheon on the Casino veranda. Other golfers were Mr. John Aspegren and Mr. S. Frederic Mills and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Robinson.

LONG ISLAND NOTES. Mr. and Mrs. C. K. G. Billings have opened Farnsworth, their country home, near Mill Neck, after having passed the winter and spring at their home in Santa Barbara, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Pratt, who have been at the Brees, Glen Cove, since the early part of May, will sail for Europe on June 25, with their son, Frederic Pratt. They expect to return the middle of August.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Pratt, who are at Killenworth, Glen Cove, will spend July at their lodge in New Brunswick, N. S., and in August will sail for Europe for an extensive tour on the Continent.

Fraser Sisters Are Brides at Double Wedding make a shoe of heavenly ease—a shoe that is as desirable for its air of good-looking trimness as for the firm foundation of comfort which is derived from:

- 1—The "Secret Spring," a strip of resilient steel in the shank, hand-forged, highly tempered.
- 2—The Cupped Heel Seat which keeps the foot from crowding forward.
- 3—The Straight-Line Last which prevents pressure on joints and toes.
- 4—The Combination Last which provides ease across the ball of the foot and snug fit at narrow heel and instep.
- 5—The Flexible Cork Filler, a shock absorbent, damp-proof insole.
